THE QUAY MEN VOTED STRAIGHT.

They Failed to Support the Ticket of the Municipal League In the Quaker City. Results of the Elections Held Throughout the State.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 19.—The returns from the contested wards in this city indiente that the municipal league has failed in its effort to secure the election to councils of reformers. In the Eighth ward, where a hard fight was made against Wencel Hartman, who is presideat of common councils, that gentleman was elected by nearly 1,000 major ity In the Fifth ward a bitter fight was waged against James B. Anderson, whose course in select council for years past has displeased the reformers Nevertheless, he was returned by over 1,000 majority. In other wards the result was equally discouraging to the mumicipal leaguers. The followers of Senater Quay, who are known as "anti combiners," were expected to help the municipal league in its effort to defeat the "combine" candidates, but they appear to have voted and worked for the regular Republican ticket, with the resuit that the reformers were "snowed

Edward A. Devlin, Republican and Maurice F. Wilhere, Democrat, were reelected magistrates, the latter under the law relating to minority representation. The tickets were headed by John L. Kinsey and Arthur Biddle, respective ly Republican and Democratic candi dates for city solicitor. Kinsey was elected by a unijority that will probably exceed the Democratic vote. The compaign was noteworthy for the espe cially bitter fights in many of the wards due to the factional split in the Repubican ranks, the efforts of the municipal league, and here and there to the activity of the Democrats.

A municipal election, when a mayor is not to be chosen, is usually marked by a light vote. In 17 out of the 87 wards, owing to the heated contests between rival candidates for select and common council an unusually heavy spring vote was recorded, and the voting was so y gried and independent that the work of counting the ballots lasted far into the morning.

a faction of the Republican party undertook to elect the two delegates from the district at a primary election. The opposing faction, led by ex-Congressman Thompson, contended that the lelegates must be selected according to the practice of selecting congressional candidates in the district, namely, at a convention of delegates chosen by primaries. To secure a decision upon the subject Judge Thompson formally appealed to Chairman Carter and was sus-

The only Bridges. man who got out of the mines at the time of the explosion was Edward Welch, who was near the month of the tunnell, and was blown out, his skull fractured, arm broken, face badly cut and burned and all the hair burned from his head. He was breathing when found, but expired shortly after without showing consciousness.

Between 50 and 66 men were in the mine at the time, and all are supposed to have perished. It is thought the disaster may have been caused by the breaking into an immense pocket of gas generated by fires that are continually burning in the mines. On Feb. 6 State Coal Mine Inspector Griffith inspected the mine and pronounced it in splendid condi-

A Strong Bill Reported to the Senate

by Senator Lodge. Washington, Feb. 19-Senator Lodge, chairman of the committee on immigration, has reported a bill from that committee for the restriction of immigration. The bill provides for the exclusion of all persons who are so ignerant as to be unable to read and write any language. Senator Lodge presented a written report on the bill in which he says:

"This measure if adopted will exclude a large portion of the present immigra tion and with few exceptions will tell exclusively on the most undesirable por tions of immigration alone. No measare can be devised which will let in absolutely everyone who ought to come in and exclude every immigrant who ought to be shut out, but the percentage of desirable immigrants who would be excluded by this bill would be reduced to the minium.

CLEVELAND, Feb. 19.-The Cleveland chamber of commerce has blackballed the name of Andrew Carnegie, which had been proposed for honorary membership. Before the vote was taken L. A. Russell a leading attorney made a speech, saying that he had been led to suspect Mr. Carnegie made his fortune because of tariff protection, and he also suspected from what he had read of the Homestead strike that he was an oppressor of the poor. Unless somebody could convince him to the contrary, he would vote against admitting Mr. Carnegie to membership. Five blackballs were voted-the constitutional number required to debar an applicant.
